Some UN organizations use these registration levels while others do not. The system is intuitive and will submit your registration automatically to the UN organizations maintaining these levels.

When participating in a tender, please check carefully the minimum registration level required by the UN organization.

Once you have submitted your registration at basic level, you will find a link to the level I registration in the left-hand menu. Similarly, once you have completed and submitted level I registration, you will find a link to level 2 registration.

For further guidance, please read the level I and 2 registration guide.
